Spreading Love Everywhere

Summary

A cute, short story and a crossover. This Valentine's Day, Sailor Chibi Moon, Wedding Peach, Cure Lovely and the dating app Superlove are on a mission to spread love everywhere.

- A translation of Répandre l'amour partout by MiaQc

I'm a green humanoid being with hearts all over me. My name is Superlove. Today is Valentine's Day. As my name suggests, although I'm a simple dating app, it's my duty to spread love everywhere. But I can't do it alone. Thus I've sought the help of Sailor Chibi Moon, Wedding Peach and Cure Lovely.

The three magical girls accepted without hesitation. Thanks to their powers – Sailor Chibi Moon's magical pink hearts, Wedding Peach's Love Wave and Cure Lovely's magical beam – and their kindness, love is now everywhere.

For my part, I've been sharing romantic pubs on the net. I get lots of visitors. It warms my heart. When I see the magical girls' trio again, I thank them warmly. This Valentine's Day will go down in history!
